Suspects in Custody Thought Guilty of Stag Hold up FIRE DAMAGE AT SAN PABLO

FIVE BANDITS OF OAKLAND UNDER ARREST AT SEATTLE

The capture of a gang of five bandits at Seattle by the police of that city has led to the belief that it is the same gang, or part of the same gang, responsible for the numerous holdups of late in the East Bay district, and especially those in the El Cerrito district.

That it may also include some of the Howard street gangsters was the opinion of San Francisco and Oakland authorities. The men are alleged to have been concerned in a series of holdups and bank robberies in several cities of the coast.

The men arrested were: Louis Lazarus, San Francisco Howard street gangster; Edward Patton, alias "Dip" Patton, San Francisco; William Holtz, alias "Billy Martin," Oakland; Jimmy Ryan, alias "Jim the Riveter," Oakland; John Barris, alias Howard Farley, Oakland.

The gang was captured on advice received by the Seattle police to the effect that Barris would call at the post office for a letter from Juanita Berkeley of Oakland. The Berkeley woman and three other women of Oakland had been under surveillance by the police.

New Officers of Yeomen Will Be Installed in Oct.

George Hildreth of Oakland Home-stead was a pleasant visitor at the meeting last evening of Olive Home-stead of Yeomen, and made an interest-ink talk to the members.

Arrangements are being made for the installation of the newly-elected officers at the first meeting in Oc-tober.

The instantaneous success which greeted the arrival of the four-cylinder roadster and touring car will also be accorded the Buick four-cylinder Coupe and Sedan, which will be on exhibition at our show room beginning October 1, 1921.

We want you to see this new model and ride in it because we believe that these new four-cylindered closed cars will create the same sensation that the open models created upon their recent arrival here.

Autos Collide on Avenue But Parties are Not Injured

A service car noted by E. Dickerson's garage, 631 Nevin avenue, crashed into the touring car belonging to C. A. Coots, parked between Tenth and Eleventh, on Macdonald avenue, last evening. A smashed gas tank on the touring car and a broken frame on the service car resulted from the collision.

It was said that Dickerson lost control of the service car, due to some failure of the steering apparatus, causing it to hit the rear of the touring car. The latter car was driven over the curb and onto the sidewalks by the crash. No was injured.

War Veterans Can Reinstate Their Insurance

War veterans whose applications for reinstatement of war risk insurance were turned down on account of their physical condition can now reinstate their insurance, according to the amended Sweet bill recently passed.

If their physical condition has previously prevented them from reinstating, they can do so by paying back premiums. If their physical condition is the same now as at the time of their discharge, veterans can reinstate their insurance by paying one month's back premium and the premium of the current month. All insurance must be reinstated by December 31, 1921.

Employed Boys of Richmond to Go to State Conference

The State Employed Boys' conference will be held at Hayward next Saturday and Sunday, with a large representation of the working boys of this city present. The Richmond delegation will go to Hayward under the leadership of V. D. Brammer, secretary of the Richmond Y. M. C. A.

The boys will be entertained in the homes of the people of Hayward. The sessions will begin at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, following registration and preliminaries. Edwin Reed of the First National Bank of Richmond, will be one of the speakers.

Will Bar Hoboes From Riding on Santa Fe Trains

If the officials of the Santa Fe found out who the employee was that gave out the information a short time ago that hoboes could ride in freight cars for $1 a head he would lose his job.

The newspapers on September 2 carried a story to the effect that tramps were riding on the Santa Fe freights from Martinez to points north for $1. G. W. Lupton, superintendent of the San Francisco division of the Santa Fe says that if such was the case there was no authorization for the collecting of $1 from tramps who sought to ride in the "side door pullmans."

"No hobo is allowed to ride on our trains," says Lupton. "These men are dangerous people and our watchmen are instructed to keep them off our property."

ROADHOUSE OF BUCK MOITOA IS WIPED OUT BY THE FLAMES

Lack of proper fire protection in the San Pablo section resulted yesterday afternoon in the destruction by fire of the soft drink place of M. M. (Buck) Moitoza at the junction of the San Pablo avenue highway and the San Pablo creek road. The building and its contents were totally destroyed, and Dick Smith, evidently an employee of the place, narrowly escaped being burned to death.

Adjoining buildings close by caught fire, and only by the hardest kind of work, was the members of the Richmond fire department able to save them.

It is stated that the fire was started from a coal oil stove, and by the time the Richmond department responded to the call for help and reached the scene, the building was a roaring furnace.

Moitoza estimates his loss is $2000 and part of this is represented by currency that was burned. The building is owned by Mrs. Isabella Medina of Hayward, and there was $1000 insurance carried on it.

The cottage of Walter Barnes, occupied by D. S. Duarte and family, and the residence of Mrs. Bertha Evans, and outbuildings, caught fire several times, but the firemen succeeded in saving them.

Fire Chief Lemoin stated last evening that it was criminal that property owners of San Pablo should continue to be without fire protection, as the county could make arrangements with the East Bay Water company for the installation of hydrants.

Lemoin suggests that hydrants be installed at the junction of San Pablo avenue and the creek road, at a point half way between the junction and Belding's store, in front of Belding's store, at the Wild Cat creek bridge, in front of the Catholic church at San Pablo, and at Twenty-third and Market.

Within the past year and a half, the potteries beyond San Pablo and the plant of the Capitol Art Metal company, and the Houts Oil company have been destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of nearly $200,000.

Rebekahs Dance Benefit of Orphans Proves Success

A good crowd and a good time marked the success of the benefit dance for the orphans' home held last evening by the Richmond Rebekahs.

The music furnished by Richards' orchestra contributed much to the pleasure of the evening.

Refreshments of coffee and cake were served to the dancers at a late hour. A neat sum was realized by the enterprise, and credit is due to the able management of J. L. Miller, chairman of the dance.

BOWLING LEAGUE SEASON WILL START NEXT MONTH

The season of the Standard Bowling League will open next month at the Richmond Bowling Alley on Seventh street.

Counterfeit Money Being Now Circulated in Pittsburg

A large number of counterfeit half dollars are being circulated in Pittsburg and other towns in that section of the county, according to reports reaching here. The coins are said to be new and bear the date of 1921. About $90 is said to be in circulation.

Lincoln P. T. A. to Give "Spinsters Convention" Soon

The Lincoln Parent-Teachers Association met yesterday afternoon at the Lincoln school with Mrs. A. W. Krummick, the new president, in the chair. Plans were made to produce the comedy, "The Spinsters Convention," which lately made such a hit when put on by the Epworth League of the First Methodist church at the Point.

"The Spinsters' Convention" will be offered to the residents of the Eastern section of the city at the Lincoln school auditorium on Friday, September 30. Work has already been started by the members of the association on the production.

Three new officers were elected yesterday by the Association. They are: Vice president, Mrs. Elizabeth Davis; secretary, Mrs. A. L. Recktor; treasurer, Mrs. Astell.

Armstead Will Open Up Modern Hardware Store

R. G. Armstead, formerly connected with the Square Deal Hardware Company, has leased the building at the corner of Eighth and Macdonald formerly occupied by the Mechanics bank and in a short time will open up a modern hardware store.

A long-term lease has been signed up, and a force of men will be put to work to change the building so that it will be suitable for commercial purposes.

Armstead has been a resident of Richmond for the past eight years, and has every faith in its future.

Work on Bridges on Pacheco Road Starts Next Week

Work will be completed early next week on the construction of the bridges on the new highway between Pacheco and Concord, according to an announcement made at the office of County Engineer R. R. Arnold yesterday. Two long bridges have been built, one 108 feet in length, and the other 306 feet long.

As soon as the bridge work has been finished, actual concrete pouring will be started and the road will be rushed through before the heavy rains of winter start.

SQUARE DANCE CLUB DANCE SATURDAY EVENING

The Square Dance Club will hold its usual weekly dance at Moose Hall tomorrow evening. Music for the dance will be furnished by Bennett's orchestra, and the lady members are requested to bring cake or sandwiches for the supper to be served to the members.

ATTEMPT TO OUST BOARD DIRECTORS OF C. OF C. FAILS

A special meeting of the members of the Richmond Chapter of Commerce was held last evening at which a resolution was presented by Hall Sanders accepting the resignations of the directors of the Chapter of Commerce, but when it was called to the attention of the presiding officer that the resignations of but two members had been presented, the resolution was withdrawn.

Later the resolution was presented in another form, by which it was attempted to accept the resignations of the two directors, but as this was objected to on the ground that the matter was not in the power of the members to act upon at the meeting, but was proper action for the directors, this resolution was also withdrawn.

There was quite a bit of argument over the matter. O. R. Ludwig, Dan W. Reardon, Larkin J. Younce, C. C. Olney and G. E. Milnes contending that any action by the meeting would be illegal.

An unsuccessful effort was made to have the secretary present and read the by-laws of the organization to the meeting, so that all present could see just what the rules governing the work of the organization are.

Bunches of proxies were presented, mostly from members outside of the city, but as the occasion for which they were intended to be used did not arise, they were not used, neither was the question settled as to the right of a non-member to use them.

W. J. Wallace, not only acted as secretary of the meeting but also as the presiding officer.

O. R. Ludwig stated during the meeting that there must be something wrong with the Chapter of Commerce, as he could not understand the seemingly intense desire to have the body take action that was in direct conflict with the by-laws of the organization.

Tanker Leaves for the Far East With Big Cargo of Oil

The first tanker from San Francisco in several weeks, the steamer Tippecanoe, left the bay city yesterday with 66,000 barrels of fuel oil loaded at the Shell Company's plant at Martinez. The vessel is owned and operated by the Shipping Board. The shipment is taken as a hopeful sign that the demand for fuel oil in the Far East is picking up.

Junior Elks Will Initiate Tonight

A meeting of the Junior Elks' Lodge will be held this evening at the Elks' club, and a class of 12 candidates will be initiated. Harry Jones, past chaplain of the New York State Association of Elks, will be present to assist in the meeting. All members are requested to be present.

TO CONFER FIRST DEGREE

Harbor lodge of Masons will meet tomorrow evening at which time the first degree will be conferred.

Trial of Fatty Arbuckle Will Be Rushed by District Atty.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—District Attorney Brady is still undecided whether Roscoe Arbuckle shall be tried on a charge of murder or of manslaughter, and a decision will not be reached until 10 o'clock Friday morning.

Attorney Brady and his assistants, together with Chief of Police O'Brien and other police heads, conferred for several hours this afternoon on the matter, which was finally laid over.

Bail had been fixed at $10,000 bonds or $5000 cash, following the filing of the court charge of manslaughter by the grand jury in Presiding Judge Shortall's court, and a bench warrant issued.

Arbuckle's attorneys, Frank Dominguez, Milton Cohen and Charles H. Brennan, scurried about and procured $5000 cash, which was posted with the bond and warrant clerk. But with the failure of Brady to dismiss the charge of murder, their efforts were fruitless and "Fatty" had to spend another night in jail.

Attorney Brady has promised a speedy trial of the movie actor. "We lost no time in trying the Howard street gangsters," said the district attorney, "and I do not see what favors Arbuckle may expect."

It was explained that the indictment for murder will not prevent the preliminary examination of Arbuckle by Judge Lazarus on the charge of murdering Virginia Rappe, sworn to by Mrs. Delmont. It was pointed out that this would place the witnesses against Arbuckle on record.

TO BECOME NURSE.
Miss Irene Rose of San Pablo has entered the Merritt hospital at Oakland, and will take a "course" for a trained nurse.

BURGLAR ROBS BUSH HOME ON WASHOE AVE. SECURES RING

While the family was out last evening between the hours of 7 and 10 p. m., the residence of N. T. Bush at 271 Washoe street was ransacked by thieves.

Entrance was effected by means of a pass key and a ring and some small change was taken, but jewelry and other valuable articles were not taken.

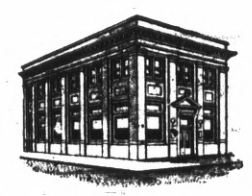

It is the belief of the police that the thief was scared away while in the midst of his work.

Mrs. Woodruff Head of Committee to Plan for Dance

Richmond Temple No. 86, Pythian Sisters, met in regular session at Pythian Castle last evening, at which plans were made for a whist party to be held about the last of the month, at a date to be announced later. Mrs. Beatrice Woodruff is the chairman of the committee.

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of last evening's meeting and a jolly time enjoyed by the members.

It was announced that Richmond Temple Sewing Club will meet next Thursday afternoon, September 22, at the home of Mrs. Marie Ripley, 138 South Fifth street. All members are urged to come and bring their sewing.

Uncle Sam, The Financial Chemist

IT is good for us sometimes to consider how our Banks have helped us to develop our National Resources—

WITHOUT their help much of our so-called National Wealth would not be at our disposal. The Federal Reserve System has been a factor of immense importance in placing these National gifts at the door of mankind.

MAYBE we can help develop our own business in the same way but on a smaller scale.

OFFICIAL PAPER CITY OF RICHMOND

THINKOGRAPHS by F. J. HULANISKI

KEEPE GOVERNMENT WEIGHT

Our government is getting top heavy and too cumbersome. The big army of officialdom, if put to plowing corn, could accomplish much good, while as it is over half of them accomplish nothing of more importance than drawing their own fat salaries. Half of the laws now littering up the statute books are worse than useless, and are there merely to help lawyers ply their trade, while half of our public servants are but so many flunkies kept for show, who eat our subscribers' money but do not do any work. Every government bureau, of which there are hundreds, has an army of clerks stumbling over each other and putting in time doing nothing at the expense of the taxpayers. General Daves has topped off a hundred million from the budget, but what is a hundred million compared to the four billions appropriated? Why is it that government cannot, or at least never does, act like any ordinary business man would do under similar circumstances. What are the business men of the country doing now? Cutting expenses to the bone, letting off every employee that can be spared. But the government keeps on hiring more, at an expense of five millions a year. But it is to be done!

In New York an average of three persons a day are killed by autos. During the eighteen months our men were on the firing line 48,000 were killed in battles, and during that same period 91,000 people, of whom 25,000 were children, were killed on the public highways of this country by motor vehicles. According to this, the automobile is more dangerous than war. It is not so much the auto, however, as the demented fool at the wheel.

"Old Bullets" is a Los Angeles fire horse, and recently when motor fire trucks were installed in his department the firemen of the city joined in giving him a ride on a flower-bedecked truck, they pulling the vehicle. "Old Bullets" is 28 years old and has been in the fire department 22 years. He now retires on a pension. Poor old fellow, he has been a hero and deserves the pension and rest.

Learn that your problems and troubles are economic and not political. What did politicians ever do for you? The big job we all have before us is producing things and getting them from producer to consumer, and politicians and political parties only hinder this. You can't sell, export or eat anything political.

And now Oakland, California, has a woman healer who cures all manner of ailments with prayer. Prayer is a mighty good thing, and we all ought to use more of it than we do, but when a fellow's back aches from spading up an acre lot a little liniment is good, too. Maybe the prayer and the liniment would make a good combination.

Party ties sit very lightly upon the people nowadays, as has been amply proven, and that being the case the smart thing for the party in power to do would be to remove Boise Penrose from the finance committee and put someone in the place who has not a reputation for pillooning everything not spiked down or red hot. Excessive taxation is liable to cause another "upheaval."

The fancy of the young man may turn to love in the spring all it wants to, but during this fall season our fancy is going to turn to country sausage, buckwheat cakes, Thanksgiving turkey and pumpkin pie.

Caruso may be singing in the heavenly choir, and all that, but it will be just as well for the sob squad to be a bit less sloppy about it.

An exchange paper speaks of a well-to-do bachelor. That's a misnomer. There ain't no such thing.

NATIONS WILL NOT DISARM

There is a widespread opinion throughout the country that the coming disarmament conference will not amount to much or accomplish anything of moment toward a world disarmament at this time. England is coming to that conference with the well-known fact sticking out that she has just started building four new and great battleships costing forty thousand pounds each, and if that is not a farce, what is it? Also, England refuses to not renew her treaty of alliance with Japan. Such an alliance and such battleship building can mean but one thing—it is directed against America. France has already refused to disarm, still fearing Germany. France, England, Japan and America are all spending hundreds of millions more now on armies and navies than they were in 1914 or any time in their history. The prospects for disarmament look gloomy at best, and the conference will most likely be a talkfest of peace and brotherly love while each delegate has a knife up his sleeve.

Whenever you get the blues, and feel that the world and especially this country, is on the down grade and sure to hit the bottom soon, just jump into a flivver and trail down the San Joaquin valley for a hundred miles and back. You will get home thinking and feeling different. We saw more grub piled up along the highway over there a week ago than one would think the whole world could eat in years. You just can't realize or imagine it, and must see it to understand. When one buys ten cantaloupes here in Richmond that retail for 25 cents, and figures that the farmer does not get more than a cent apiece for them, he can't see how anything is to be made by the grower, but when you see fifty or a hundred acres of them all in one patch, with a million melons in sight, you begin to figure that a million pennies is some piece of change in the aggregate. Miles and miles of wheat in sacks; miles of alfalfa and sugar beets; miles of alfalfa and fat cattle and hogs to eat it; big barns stuffed full of good eats; fruit of all kinds as far as the eye can reach—all that spells prosperity. About all one gets in this world is something to eat, anyhow, and California is sure the place to get that.

With millions of chickens cackling in their yards, millions of pumpkins gleaming yellow in the fields, millions of bushels of wheat moving to market, spare ribs coming down in price and good eats getting so plentiful they are within the reach of all, we positively refuse to get gloomy and all hot up over European politics.

Gleefulness and joy are so much easier to find than gloom and reasons for grumpiness that the wonder is people do not quit hunting trouble and go to hunting for gladness instead.

Millions of dark places all over the world are being made less dark by the sunshiny gleam of ripe and luscious California fruit. Wherever one turns there is some blessing staring one in the face.

It is not necessary for a woman to feel that she cannot live without a man in order to marry him. The thing necessary to know is whether she can live with him.

Some reporter had a pipe dream the other day and wrote of Marconi receiving messages from Mars. If he had taken one more shot of the hooch he might have deciphered the message.

If you want to save your boy and girl from a lasting shame and disgrace, keep them away from booze and out of the movies. Both are bad.

"She Got Him out of a Bad Place," announces a glaring headline in a daily. Fine! We're mighty glad of it, because she is everlastingly getting him into such a place.

"Charge It" Latest Film Production by Clara K. Young

When a great motion-picture star appears in a dual-role, the event is hailed as a sensation in filmdom. The sensation of multiple roles is denied in Clara Kimball Young's latest photodrama "Charge It" at the Richmond T. & D. Theater today and tomorrow.

In this realistic picture from the gifted pen of Sada Cowan—remembered for her successful authorship of "Hush" and "Straight from Paris," Miss Young assumes four different roles. The remarkable point, however, is not in the number of roles this versatile actress portrays, but in the effectiveness with which she enacts each part. As the brilliant, glorious social leader, surrounded by all the extravagance of wealth, Miss Young's carriage is convincing. As the flippant lover of another man, her gaiety and reckless demeanor are equally realistic. Again as the humble restaurant help in a cheap cabaret, Miss Young seems to have been born for the part. Finally, as the repentant, modest wife of a striving husband, she seems to be the ideal housewife to the manner born.

Breaking the Shackles of Time

CLOCKS are as much a matter of course as suspenders or sausages. But it took energy and initiative to get the first clock on the kitchen shelf and start it going. The Yankee pack peddler was sole distributor and transporter. His lean, lanky, loose-jointed legs set the limits for most distribution problems in those days.

Modern transportation with progressive sales methods—and advertising—have broken the shackles of time. They make a quick job of what used to take years. Through advertising, many an article has been introduced simultaneously in stores all over the country.

This newspaper does you a two-fold service. It not only brings you news of the world, but also news of what to buy, where to buy and how to buy.

The advertisements are news columns of merchants and manufacturers who have important stories to tell you.

Take advantage of them. Read the latest news of good things to be had—and where to get them.

Copyright, 1921, by the Bell Syndicate, Inc.

The hateful creature still murmured in her resentful ears that night, as she fell asleep; and she passed into the beginnings of a dream with her lips slightly dimpling the surface of her pillow in belated repartee. And upon waking, though it was Sunday, her first words, half slumbrous in the silence of the morning, were, "Vile things!" Her faculties became more alert, during the preparation of a toilet which was to serve not only for breakfast, but with the addition of gloves, a hat, and a blue velvet coat, for church and Sunday school as well, and she planned a hundred ven-geances. That is to say, her mind did not occupy itself with plots pos-sibly to make real; rather it dabbled among those fragmentary visions that love to overlap and displace one another in the shifty retina of the mind's eye.

But in all of these pictures, where in pre-eminently she seemed some sort of deathly powerful Queen of Poetry, the postures assumed by the figures of Messrs. Atwater and Rooter (both in an extremity of rage) were miser-ably suppliant. So she soothed her-self a little—but not long. Herbert in the next pew in church, and Henry in the next beyond that, were perfect compositions in anguish. They were cold, contented, aristocratic; and had an imperturbable understanding be-tween themselves—quite perceptible to the sensitive Florence—that she was a nuisance now capably disposed of by their beautiful discovery of "Say not so!" Florence's feelings were un-becoming to the place and occasion.

But at four o'clock that afternoon she was assuaged into a milder con-dition by the arrival, according to an agreement made in Sunday school, of the popular Miss Patty Fairchild.

Patty was thirteen and a half; an ex-quisite person with gold-dusted hair, eyes of perfect blue, and an al-luring air of sweet self-consciousness. Henry Rooter and Herbert Illingsworth Atwater, Jr., out gathering news, saw her entering Florence's gate, and immediately forgot that they were reporters. They became si-lent and gradually moved toward the house of their newspaper's sole poetess.

Florence and Patty occupied them-selves indoors for half an hour; then went out into the yard to study a mole's tunnel that had interested Flo-rence recently. They followed it across the lawn at the south side of the house, discussing the habits of moles and other matters of zoology; and finally lost the track near the fence, which was here the "back fence," higher than their heads. Patty looked through a knothole to see if the tun-nel was visible in the next yard, but without reporting upon her observa-tions she turned, as if carelessly, and leaned back against the fence, cover-ing the knothole.

"Florence," she said, in a tone soft-er and lovelier than she had been using heretofore—"Florence, do you know what I think?"

"No. Could you see any more tracks over there?"

"Florence," said Patty—"I was just going to tell you something—only may-be I better not."

"Why not?" Florence inquired. "Go on and tell me."

"No," said Patty, gently. "You might think it was silly."

"No, I won't."

"Yes, you might."

"I promise I won't."

"Well, then—oh, Florence, I'm sure you'll think it's silly!"

"I promised I wouldn't."

"Well—I don't think I better say it."

"Go on," Florence urged. "Patty, you got to."

"Well, then, if I got to," said Patty. "What I was going to say, Florence: Don't you think your cousin Herbert and Henry Rooter have got the nicest eyes of any boy in town?"

"Who?" Florence was staggered.

"I do," Patty said in her charming voice. "I think Herbert and Henry've got the nicest eyes of any boy in town."

"You do?" Florence cried incred-ulously.

"Yes, I really do, Florence. I think Herbert Atwater and Henry Rooter have got just the nicest eyes of any boy in town."

"Well, I never heard anything like this before!" Florence declared.

"But don't you think they've got the nicest eyes of any boy in town?" Pat-ty insisted, appealingly.

"I think," said Florence, "Their eyes are just horrible!"

"What?"

"Herbert's eyes," continued Flo-rence ardently, "are the very worst lookin' ole squinty eyes I ever saw, and that nasty little Henry Rooter's eyes."

But Patty suddenly became fidgety; she hurried away from the fence, "Come over here, Florence," she said. "Let's go over to the other side of the yard and talk."

And it was time for her to take some such action if she wished to show any tact. Messrs. Atwater and Rooter, seated quietly together upon a box on the other side of the fence (though with their backs to the knot-

Fiery, Itchy Eczema Healed Right Up By Applying Sulphur

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching, eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Men-tho-Sulphur, says a noted skin spe-cialist. Because of its germ destroy-ing properties, this sulphur prepara-tion begins at once to soothe irritat-ed skin and heal eruptions, such as rash, pimples and ring worm.

It seldom fails to remove the tor-ment and disfigurement, and you do not have to wait for relief from em-barrassment. Improvement quickly shows. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Men-tho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.

This is the Way to Make Every Buy a Bargain

BUY advertised goods. Only good goods, fairly priced, can stand the spotlight of publicity.

A merchant or manufacturer would not dare to advertise merchandise that is poor in quality, poor in make or that will not give reasonable wear. The penalty of such tactics is too heavy. No goods—and no business concern—can thrive under the weight of public condemnation.

A merchant places the whole reputation of his business at stake every time he advertises. Naturally enough, he is careful of what he says and when his statement is placed in the news-paper—where everyone in town may read—so that untruth in it will be known to all of his em-ployees and most of his friends—then you may be sure he is doubly careful.

When you buy advertised goods you get a bar-gain because they must be as advertised.

So it pays you to read advertisements. Adver-tising protects you.

Read the advertisements in this paper and get the best of the bargain.

It Was Not Lost Upon Her, However, That Her Withdrawal Had Little Depressing Effect Upon Her Guests.

pressing effect upon her guests. They chattered gaily and Patty devised, or remembered, harmless little games which could be played by a few peo-ple as well as by many; and the three participants were so congenial and noisy and made so merry that, before long, Florence was unable to avoid the impression that, whether she liked it or not, she was giving quite a party.

At times the noted eyes of Atwater & Rooter were gazed off, with the soft cast of enchantment, especially when Patty felt called upon to repro-ve the two with little coquetries of slaps and pushes. Noted for her sprightli-ness, she was never sprightlier; her pretty laughter tooted continuously and the gentlemen, accompanied, with doing sounds so repulsive to Florence that without being actively conscious of what she did, she embodied the phrase, "perfectly sickening!" In the hymn she was crooning, and repeated it over and over to the air of "Rock of Ages."

"Now I tell you what let's play," the versatile Patty proposed, after ex-hausting the pleasures of "Geor-

Probe Being Made of Sale of Arms at Benicia Arsenal

The investigation that is now being made by the war department of the sale of revolvers and ammunition from the arsenal at Benicia is being surrounded with every secrecy.

The sale of the guns, which has been going on continuously since late last year and involves hundreds of weapons and thousands of ammunition, is declared to have been perfectly legitimate, as they are of antiquated design.

The probe has been carried on for weeks, it was learned. Records of the sale of the guns to various individuals have been gone over carefully and checked up.

The strange absence of these guns when certain individuals were asked to show them has added to the suspicion of federal authorities.

Admitting that they "didn't have them now," various excuses were declared to have been given, ranging from the statement that they had been "misplaced" to the declaration that they had been "lost or resold."

One lot of the guns has been sold to the Piedmont police department but no suspicion is attached to this sale.

The guns are of the .38 calibre double action type with long barrels. They were sold for $10 each with 50 rounds of ammunition. Colonel Phillips, stationed at the Presidio and understood to have charge of the investigation, refused to discuss the probe.

"Everything must come from headquarters, at Washington," he said.

NO RESPONSIBILITY FIXED FOR DEATH OF CASEY BOY

The inquest into the death of Lawrence Casey at Martinez yesterday resulted in a jury verdict that he met his death from a gunshot wound inflicted by eight-year-old Richard Johnston, but that owing to the age of the boy no responsibility could be fixed.

Five out of six jurors concurred in this verdict. The sixth, Mrs. Harry Blair, the only woman on the jury, returned a similar verdict, but held that the parents of the Johnston boy were responsible for having a loaded gun in the house.

A number of children, schoolmates of the dead boy and Richard Johnston, testified at the inquest. Their stories did not vary materially.

No Trace Found of Bandits Who Held up Taxicab Driver

Continued search by the police of Richmond and the other East Bay cities yesterday failed to reveal anything concerning the two bandits who hired a taxicab driven by Walter Gray of 1062 Twenty-fourth street, Oakland, and ordered him to drive to Richmond.

After getting out on San Pablo avenue the bandits shoved a gun into Gray's ribs and demanded that he drive to Vallejo. His refusal resulted in his being robbed and being left bound, while the bandit pair drove off in the car.

Gray worked himself loose and walked a mile to reach a telephone to report the robbery to the police. All the Oakland stations and Richmond were notified at once, but nothing has yet been discovered.

N. J. Owens is Found Guilty by Jury in Superior Court

N. J. Owens was found guilty as charged and J. Elmer Stein guilty of simple assault by the jury yesterday in their trial for assault with intent to commit murder in connection with an attack on Steve Contorinakis, restaurant keeper of Martinez.

Owens and Stein were alleged to have entered Contorinakis' restaurant on Perry street several months ago, and following a controversy over the meal, the defendants were said to have inflicted knife wounds in the back of the restaurant man.

The prosecution of the case was handled by Deputy District Attorney Leo F. Tormey and T. H. DeLap. With the failure of an Oakland attorney to appear for the defendants, Attorney W. H. Wright of Martinez was assigned by Superior Judge R. H. Latimer to represent them.

GOOD PROGRAM READY FOR ST. MARK'S SHOW

An exceptional program, including a one-act comedy skit, entitled "Six Months Married," played by Mae O'Keefe and Hayward Jones, will be presented at the vaudeville program to be given for the benefit of St. Mark's church Saturday evening at the club house.

Members of the Bible class of J. A. Long of the First Presbyterian church, were pleasantly entertained at his home, 521 North Eleventh street, an impromptu entertainment by the class helping to make a jolly evening, after which refreshments were served.

PAST MASTERS ALPHA LODGE HONORED AT A BANQUET

Past Masters' night was observed last evening by McKinley Lodge, F. & A. M., with an unusually large attendance present. All the past masters save one since the founding of the lodge were present.

The third degree was conferred, with the past masters acting in the following stations.

H. L. Ellis, W. M.; W. E. Rose, S. W.; W. B. Richmond, J. W.; C. J. Peterson, treasurer; Hiram E. Jacobs, secretary; J. H. Rumrill, S. D.; M. H. Carey, J. D.; W. T. Helms, marshal; F. G. Blackhart, senior steward; T. H. Summers, junior steward; P. Church, chaplain; A. H. Campbell, tyler.

A feature of the meeting was the act of Past Master Church in conferring the third degree upon his son, Donald Church.

At the banquet which followed, Benjamin Boorman, the first candidate to receive a degree in McKinley Lodge, being at that time 76 years of age, addressed the members. Speeches were also made by many of the past masters.

State Meeting of Mooseheart at Santa Rosa

The Richmond Lodge of Moose met in regular session last evening at Moose Hall, with Vice Dictator A. O. Bennett presiding in the absence of Dictator W. B. Jenkins.

A part of the meeting was given over to boosting for the state meeting of Mooseheart Legion at Santa Rosa September 23 and 24. All members of the Moose are urged to attend. Other business was taken up by the lodge.

MEETING OF EL CERRITO TRUSTEES

At the meeting of the board of trustees at El Cerrito last night, the contract for a culvert between Richmond and Everett avenues, on Lincoln street, was awarded to Neel & White.

The monthly reports of the treasurer and marshal were heard and accepted.

Two days' extension of time was granted to Fred Meyers on the work on Kearney street.

Fred Fliggerow appeared before the board and stated that his bill of $46.85 against Meyers was still unpaid, and sought the help of the city in its collection. He was advised to consult an attorney in the matter.
